Dear John:

Enclosed is a draft of the remarks I have in mind to offer to the Annual Intelligence Conference in October. It seemed prudent to prepare something well in advance so that you could have a look at it. Please let me know if you feel this needs further tailoring to the audience. You won't hurt my feelings. Please limit distribution for now, as it will no doubt undergo more changes.

I will take advantage of being in Europe to make a few other stops before or after the conference. To help out in my travel planning, I would appreciate some advice on when you will need me at SHAPE. If you feel it would be appropriate, I would be happy to try to attend the entire conference. If you feel that a shorter visit--just for the presentation--would be preferable, that will be fine, too. When it's available, some background information on the conference and the people attending would be welcome.

In any case, I certainly hope that we have time to catch each other up on a number of issues of mutual concern.

Looking forward to seeing you in October.

Very sincerely,

Enclosure:
